ASSASSINATION SYMPOSIUM ON JOHN F. KENNEDY

In 1993, over 700 people from around the world gathered at the third annual Assassination Symposium on John F. Kennedy to participate in panel discussions, networking opportunities and research findings regarding the questions remaining 30 years after that tragic and puzzling day in Dallas.

ASK '94 will once again feature panel presentations, network lunches, eyewitness accounts, new information from authors and research authorities. The ASK Mart will offer information, products and memorabilia, as well as the latest books and papers, some with authors in attendance for autograph and interview opportunities. A souvenir-quality program book/registrants' directory provides registrants access to information, products and networks throughout the year.

This year's event will take place in the Adolphus Hotel, a venerable Dallas landmark steeped in history, from whose balconies and windows guests cheered the President's motorcade, only blocks away from the fateful Dealey Plaza. Across the street once stood the infamous Carousel Club, owned by Jack Ruby.

ASK registration is priced to be affordable for anyone. You will want to be part of this significant gathering, to find out more about the program schedule and registration fees, just look inside.

ASSASSINATION SYMPOSIUM ON JOHN F. KENNEDY

Registrations from across the U.S. and around the world have begun to arrive (our first 1994 registrant came from Japan) for ASK 1994, which will feature five days of panel discussions, firsthand accounts (including new-to-ASK eyewitnesses) and presentations by dedicated researchers and investigators. Registrants will have the opportunity to network with individuals with similar interests and to meet the premiere experts on the Kennedy Assassination. The ASK Mart will once again feature a wide variety of displays and merchandise, including many of the newest books in the field. ASK curriculum is developed with the assistance of veteran assassination researchers, J. Gary Shaw, Mary Ferrell and George Michael Evica

SPECIAL LUNCHEONS AVAILABLE

WOMEN REGISTRANTS will once again meet together at a luncheon during Saturday's noon break. Last year, ASK consultant Mary Ferrell hosted more than 50 women to recognize the contributions of the often overlooked female researchers and assassination theory activists. This time to network and learn more about individual work is bound to be interesting.

EDUCATORS who teach about the assassination in their work have requested an opportunity to meet together. We have scheduled that special luncheon for Sunday.

PROFESSIONALS (physicians and attorneys) will have a luncheon on Monday to discuss areas of mutual interest with their colleagues.

Luncheon tickets are $35. Reservations must be made in advance on the registration form.

Luncheon space is limited. Plan accordingly.
